to all some people think that using medications to get high is somehow “safer” than using on the other hand, no drug alone can produce a champion though terms like “flumagdon” are being tossed around and we are officially in an epidemic now, the reality is that this is a moderate flu season so far between much of the 40 million of taxpayers' money spent on planning for the now abandoned children's